Trackmen Successfully Win District

Meet

Mike Jefferson clears the first hurdle of his leg of the shuttle relay.

The Tyger Trackmen were led to a winning season by head coach Al Ward and assistants Denny Price, Halley Weaver, and Tom King.

In the District meet, Hugh Mask set a school record in the discus with a throw of 166 feet, 7 3/4 inches.

Ralph Rawls ran a fine 9.7 hundred to win the district meet. Other district placers that advanced to regionals were Ray Webb in the 440, James Barnett in the low hurdles, and the 880 relay team of Rawls, Bruce Jefferson, Bruce Woodson, and Buzzy Wittmer.

Hugh Mask proceeded to the state meet in the shot and the discus.

Mansfield Relays Become Harry Mehock Day

Relays Queen Beth Bolesky presents a trophy to Ann Arbor High School trackmen.

The 39th Mansfield Relays were held at Mehock Field April 10 and 11. Cleveland Glenville pulled out a powerful first place finish.

A special tribute to Harry Mehock, who founded the Relays in 1927, was made before the start on April 11. Mayor Robert Lemley proclaimed the two days "Harry Mehock Days".

Scoring for the Tygers were Ralph Rawls in the 100, and Mike Jefferson, Melvin Jordan, Jim Barnett, and Bruce Woodson in the shuttle hurdle relay.

The pole vault competition was tough at the Mansfield Relays.

IN MEMORIAM

Harry Mehock was perhaps the best known Mansfielder, its number one citizen. He was friendly and highly respected in the city.

Coach Mehock was the founder of the Mansfield Relays in 1927. It is now one of the largest high school track meets in the country. Coach Mehock was also a successful track coach, winning seven Relays and the 1945 state championship. In addition, he has coached many state champions.

But Coach Mehock was missing from the 39th annual Mansfield Relays. He passed away on March 23, 1970, only sixteen days prior to the track meet.

The athletes whom he guided, the track meet that he founded and directed, and the friends that he made will be lasting memorials to his name. Harry Mehock is gone, but his name will live on in the hearts of everyone who has known him.

Mass confusion starts as runners move to their places for the exchange of the baton.

About New Changes at MHS

Taking the runway down the floor for this year's Track Assembly are Wilbert Turner and Toni Mulholland.

Last minute preparations for the Track Assembly are made by Mr. McBride and Dawn Hager, secretary of Student Council.

This year's Student Council has been very active due to its concern with changes not only at Senior High but those facing us outside the school. It involved the students in such activities as Earth Day, and helped in the organization of the Black Studies Program at Senior High.

Under the direction of Sherrod Brown, President; Wilbert Turner, Vice President; Suzie Barr, Treasurer; and Dawn Hager, Secretary, the Council sought to bring about changes in the traditional rules. A revision of the dress code and of the Track Assembly were the main objectives.

Other projects which the Student Council conducts yearly include Christmas baskets and the Pupils' Civic Fund.

Two Peruvian Students Invade

José easily adjusted to the American way of life with the help of the Flinn family.

It wasn't unusual to find José on the phone with something to eat or drink in his hand.

José Pimentel, a sophomore from Lima, Peru, attended Mansfield Senior through the International Fellowship Program. He lived with Ned Flinn, also a sophomore, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Flinn. José arrived in America just in time to see his first snowfall, and enjoy some winter sports.

In Lima, José attends a boy's school. He hopes to return to the United States after graduation to attend college. He hopes to major in architecture as his father did. José lives with his parents and two sisters in Lima. His older sister was also an exchange student at the University of Wisconsin.

José enjoys swimming, playing soccer, and being around people. Because of this, he found it quite easy to adjust to MHS and the American way of life.

Bicycling took up a lot of Monica's and Mary Jane's time.

Taking a break from the daily grind, José plays a game of ping pong with his brother.

Monica attended high schools in Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, and Moon Township, Corapellis, Pennsylvania, before coming to MHS. She has already graduated from school in Arequipa, Peru, and plans to attend la Catolico University in Arequipa and then another school in Lima. She hopes to become a diplomat.

Monica is from a family of ten. One of her sisters is also a foreign exchange student in Kansas City, Missouri. Swimming, horsebackriding, all kinds of music, and reading take up Monica's free time. She lives by the ocean in the summer to practice scuba diving.

Monica immediately fit into the Cleland household.

The concert band was again this year involved in many contests and festivals. After receiving superior ratings in the annual district contest, the band attended the Buckeye Band Festival in Fremont, Ohio. Its year was finished by a spring concert and the awards banquet.

This year's officers were Karl Husty, President; Joe Chitty, Vice-President; Diane Pegg, Secretary; and Judy Henry, Treasurer.

Step Up the Ladder

MHS opened its doors to approximately 500 new students in September 1967. Although entering from three competitive junior high schools, friendships were quickly made and the newly formed class settled down to high school routines.

Class officers were elected in February. Greg Smith was chosen President. Working with him were Sherrod Brown, Vice President; Beth Bolesky, Secretary; and Kristy Hardy, Treasurer. Advisors were Mrs. Polly Davis, Mr. Robert Oliveri, and Mr. Robert Whitaker. A magazine sale was the first money-making project. Class rings were selected in the spring.

Fall 1968 began with junior class elections. Greg Smith and Kristy Hardy retained their offices, but Chip Gross became Vice President, and Amy Robinson was elected Secretary.

With the help of their advisors, Mr. Robert Whitaker, Mrs. Laura Evilsizor, and Mr. Jim Goode, Homecoming 1968, "Some Enchanted Evening", was a success.

The candy sales and the ordering of class rings helped add to the treasury. Elections for senior class officers were held in May. David Busler became the new class president while all the other officers kept their positions. The year ended with a class party held at Mohican State Park.

Returning to MHS as seniors, the class of 1970 faced a memorable year. Two dances were sponsored by the class, after the Madison football and basketball games. Varsity Varieties, entitled "And Now a Word From Our Sponsors", turned out to be a great success, with the help of advisors Mr. Jim Goode, and Mr. Douglas Pugh.

Hundreds of people also enjoyed the class play, "Man Alive", which was the result of many hours of hard work for seniors. Class Day, the Senior Prom, and Baccalaureate arrived in May, and with June came graduation.

Commencement was the final event of the Class of 1970 as a whole. Over four hundred students again went their separate ways, although remembering forever the joys, the sorrows, and the friendships of three years in the best class ever to come from MHS.

The main activity of the junior year was Homecoming and its decorations

Our faithful advisors, Coach Jim Goode and Mr. Doug Pugh, guided our class to a most successful year.

Juniors Participate in Class Activities

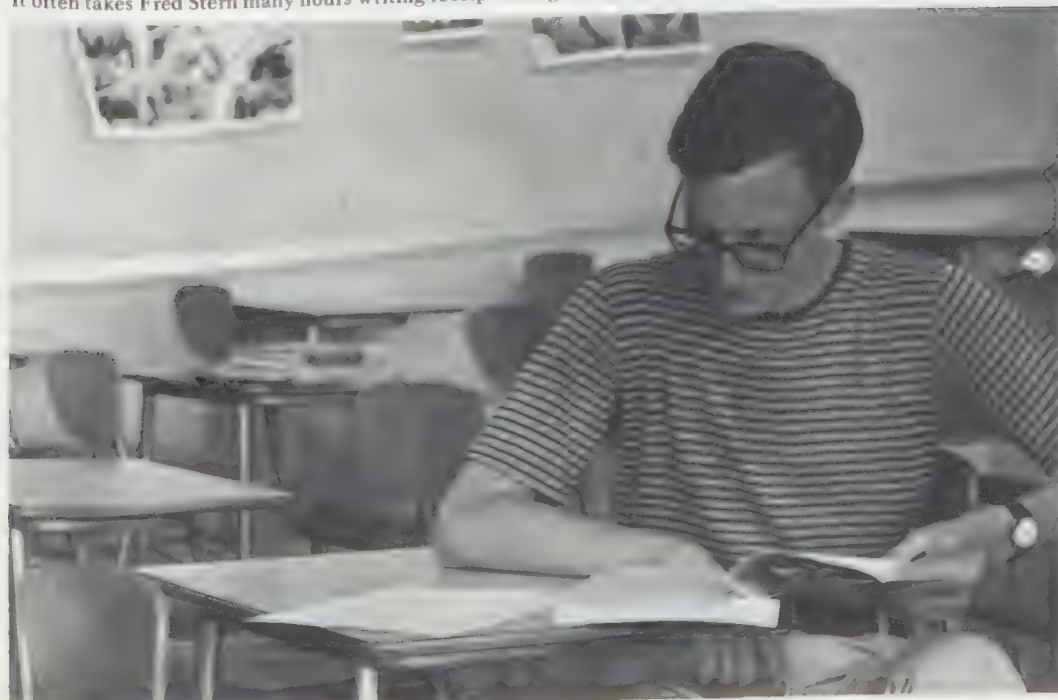

Members of the Junior Class and the class advisors worked hard to increase the treasury with a candy sale. The officers also did a lot of work. Elected in the fall, they were John Buker, President; Ramsay Slugg, Vice President; Judy Kee-ler, Secretary; and Fred Sten, Treasurer.

"Today, Tomorrow, and Forever" was the theme of Homecoming. The advisors helped make it a success. They are Mrs. Eilene Smith and Mr. David Gross.

Incoming Sophomores Have Active Class

President — Robert Bowen

Vice-President — Ted Williams

An election held in December was the first step in the formation of the Sophomore Class. Officers elected were Robert Bowen, President; Ted Williams, Vice President; Julie Parker, Secretary; and Donna Gardner, Treasurer.

The sophomores were active this year, starting off with a successful candy sale. The advisors, Mr. Charles Marchant and Mrs. Nancy Bowman, were very helpful.

The active class also sponsored a bake sale, an "Ugly Contest", and in the spring, a car wash at Graham Chevrolet.

Ted Williams announces candy sale results at an executive meeting.

The background of the page is a complex, abstract collage. It features various geometric shapes, including rectangles, triangles, and irregular polygons, in shades of gray and white. Some of these shapes appear to be layered or overlapping, creating a sense of depth. There are also some faint, illegible markings and patterns scattered throughout the composition, giving it a textured, artistic feel.

and Successful Year

Some changes have taken place in the Board of Education this year, since there were three board openings to fill. Dr. Marvin Dees was elected to another term and Mr. David Kafer and Mr. Thomas Scott were elected to fill the two remaining seats. Mr. George Murray and Mr. George Hall, who are now continuing in unexpired terms, were elected as president and vice-president, respectively. Mrs. Frieda Forrest is the Clerk-Treasurer.

There have been no changes in the Administrative Staff. Mr. Robert E. Glass is now in his third year as Superintendent of Schools. Assisting him is Mr. Glen Robinson, who is in charge of business and school plant management, and Mr. Wilbur Young, Director of Personnel.

There has been only one change in our administration at Mansfield Senior High. Mr. D. Wayne Powell is the new assistant principal in charge of attendance. Mr. Arlo Plough and Mr. Thomas Pierson continue as principal and assistant principal, respectively.

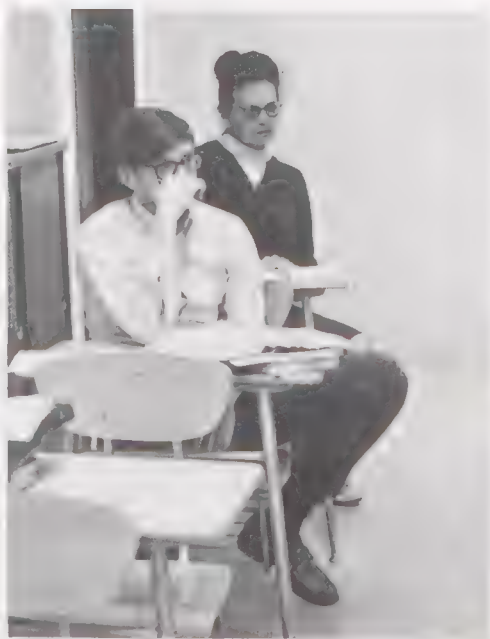

Talking with parents often takes up part of Mr. Plough's day

Classes

The aim of the English Department is to improve the student's use of the English language. This improvement comes in a student's ability to convey or receive information by speaking, writing, reading, viewing, and listening.

Students are also encouraged to enter all types of language arts contests in addition to regular classroom work.

Homework that needs grading keeps Mr. Cole busy after his last class.

Head of the Science Department, Mr. Poffenbaugh, finds teaching rewarding

The Science Department is broadened this year with the addition of three new courses. These new courses are listed as Basic Chemistry, Basic Biology, and Basic Physics. Various field trips and lab exercises help develop enthusiasm and understanding in the student body.

One of the fundamental goals of mathematics is to help organize the mental thought process. This goal is achieved by the practical use of various mathematical subjects. Offered are Algebra I and II, Plane and Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, and College Math.

Ripple machines are of interest to physics students, Mike Weber and Judy Henry.

Girls Learn Homemaking

The Home Economics Department makes an effort to teach students the basic skills of homemaking. Students are instructed in clothing construction, color coordination, child care and development, menu planning, marketing, grooming, personal relationships, consumer education, and home furnishings.

Communication And Creativity

There are two major goals of the Foreign Language Department. The first is to promote better understanding of the spoken and written language. The second is to help students understand the customs and cultures of the country and language being studied.

The Music Department tries to teach students appreciation and creativity through academic pursuits and performance groups.

The Mansfield Senior High Art Department's aim is to develop the talented student up to his individual potential.

Business Teaches Efficiency

The Physical Education Department stresses physical fitness. Girls' physical education includes a Health course and a First Aid course in addition to the regular gym classes.

Many sports are taught in order to give students a greater appreciation of the rules and techniques applied in each particular sport. Learning skills and sportsmanship is very important.

Driver Education offers book work and behind-the-wheel driving for all students. This course gives a better understanding of traffic laws and gives the student more driving experience.

The Business Education Department offers students the opportunity to gain skills necessary for office work. Programs such as Cooperative Office Education are offered to qualified seniors. These seniors are given jobs in offices doing typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand.

Special Teachers Help Students in Their Work

Boone Arnett

Robert Bowman

Mary Margret Moore

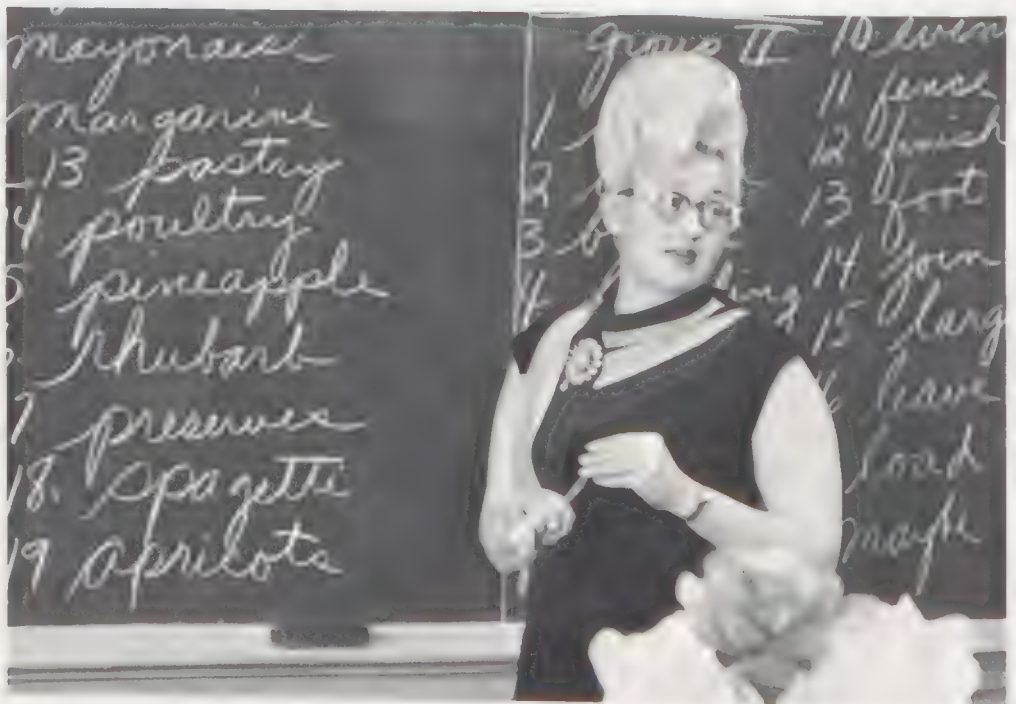

Halley Weaver

Special Education is an important department at MHS. The teachers have a special job in that they help the students achieve a higher academic standing. This is gained through the understanding of the teacher and the willingness to learn on the part of the student.

To be able to relax at least once during the day is a pleasure for Mr. Bowman

The English courses in the Department are handled by Mrs. Moore.

Research is important for Mr. Weaver's lectures.

Questions on the subject sometimes discourage Mr. Arnett

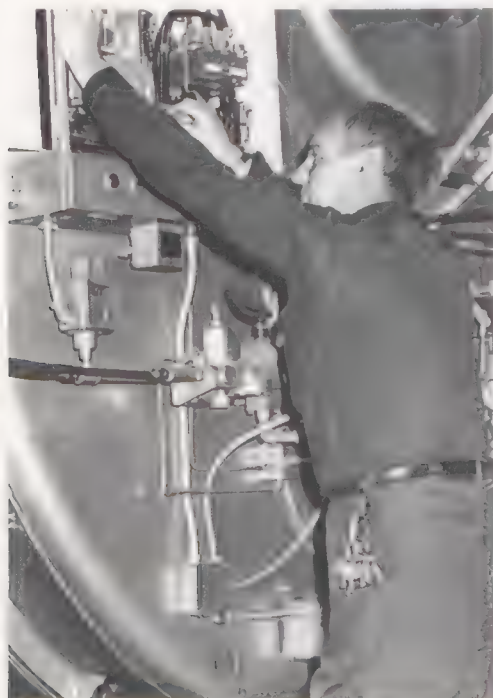

Staffs Keep School Running Smoothly

The 1970 Cafeteria Staff does its best to fix good, nutritious lunches for the students at MHS. The staff also takes on the responsibility for preparing the meals for the many banquets held in the Senior High cafeteria during the course of the year.

The Custodial Staff keeps the school neat and orderly during the school year. These people take care of all necessary maintenance in the school building.

The members of the MHS cafeteria staff are Left To Right: F. Kochheiser, E. Pender, I. Dick, C. Miller, L. Lutz, H. Grosser, H. Willis, C. Johnson, B. Efird, M. Wagner, D. Jenkins, and I. Whisler.

Mr. Dials, a member of the custodial staff, finds his work quite an experience

Preparing food for many students can be a big job, as shown by Mrs. Johnson.

Everything around the school is checked out by Mr. Dials and Mr. Wynn.

Zartman, Debra Jean — Academic. Student Council 2,3; Y-Teens 2,3; Latin Club 2; Class Exec. Comm. 3,4; V.V. 4.

We, the editors of the 1970 Manhigan, would like to take this opportunity to recognize the many people that made this year's publication possible.

First of all, thanks go to Mr. Earl Parks, the representative from the American Yearbook Company, and Mr. Dave Gross, the yearbook advisor. The typist, Amy Matthews, and photographer Tim Rohn also deserve special thanks. Without the help of the senior editors and junior staff, the Manhigan wouldn't have been the same. Thanks also go to Smucker's Studio and the Mansfield News-Journal for their aid.

In closing, we would like to wish the staff of '71 the best of luck in their publication.
